W E D D E V E L O P E R

I'm Musaddik, a Muslim student and aspiring developer from Rajbari, Bangladesh. Currently studying computer science at Jhenaidah Polytechnic Institute, my programming journey began in class 9, and I now excel in languages like C, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, along with UI design. Proficient in the "React" framework, I'm passionate about both front-end and back-end development. My faith and love for technology define my path as I continue to learn and grow.
